for New Grads and Interns.*

We are drafting the team of our dreams. At Northrop Grumman, we've developed the Intern Hire Draft – an annual intern hiring event aimed at identifying and investing in Northrop Grumman's next generation of technologists, engineers, and leaders.

We're drafting the team of our dreams! Northrop Grumman Information Systems is seeking diverse individuals for competitive internship opportunities for Summer 2016. Students must be freshman, sophomores and juniors interested in interviewing within our team at an upcoming onsite Interview Day this Fall. The best qualified applicants will receive a formal invitation to Northrop Grumman's Intern Hire Draft, where said applicants will participate in interviews with Hiring Managers representing the different areas of our company.

Individuals who meet immediate business needs will be given the chance to compete amongst their peers for an offer to join our internship program. It's the opportunity of a lifetime—one that only a few receive.

Majors of interest are:

- Computer Science*
