

Thoughts and Prayers

featuring the UMBC Wind Ensemble, OrchKids, Diana Lawrence, Daniel Bernard Roumain, and Kimberly R. Moffitt

UMBC's Wind Ensemble teams up with The Sounding Board, Baltimore Symphony's OrchKids students, singer-songwriter Diana Lawrence, Emmy-nominated composer and violinist Daniel Bernard Roumain, and other special guests to present an interactive musical event exploring the issue of gun violence. Music, multimedia, and spoken-word serve as catalysts for an interactive discussion with performers and audience members facilitated by Kimberly Moffitt, associate professor and director of the Language, Literacy & cultural doctoral program and affiliate associate professor of Africana Studies at UMBC.

Sunday March 1, 2020 5:30 p.m.
Earl and Darielle Linehan Concert Hall
Admission is FREE and open the public

This program is funded in part by a UMBC Charlesmead Arts Initiative Award.
Photo by Jesse Lee Weiner.

Details and tickets at music.umbc.edu

  Follow us @umbcmusic