

Delta Kappa Gamma Society International
Xi Chapter Announces:

Mildred Murray Memorial Recruitment Grant

Recruitment Grants for Women Educators

Qualifying Criteria

Xi Chapter of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, an honorary society for women educators, is offering two recruitment grants this year to women who are studying to become teachers. The grant will be awarded in the amount of $2,500.

The candidate:

1. is female
2. is seeking a teaching position in the state of Maryland or is currently teaching in the Baltimore metropolitan area; and is enrolled as a student in an accredited institution of higher learning in the Baltimore metropolitan area
3. must have completed three consecutive undergraduate semesters or nine graduate credits, with a 3.0 or higher G.P.A.
4. must have been enrolled in college classes to become a certified K-12 classroom teacher during the semester prior to application
5. must have at least 1 semester remaining in her course of study following the award of the grant
6. must include the following with the application form:
 - a. one letter of recommendation from an educational reference
 - b. a paragraph about yourself including:
 - your interest in teaching as a career
 - your educational plans for the next two years
 - your teaching plans upon completion of your current degree program
 - how you plan to use the recruitment grant
 - c. an official transcript (see number 3 above).
 - d. In addition, please provide a list of all current scholarships and grants you have been awarded.

Application Deadline: April 30, 2020

Awards will be presented at our annual picnic in May/June

Recipient(s) must be present to accept the recruitment grant(s)

Application forms are available in your College of Education office or through your instructors in the Education Department.