

Learning and Organization Excellence Consultants

Marci Walton, MA, MS

As a Senior Learning Consultant, Marci partners with ComPsych® customers to facilitate a diverse set of training workshops and consulting services.

Before ComPsych®, Marci worked for more than a decade in higher education. She has extensive training experience in the areas of mental health, communication techniques, wellness, crisis management, diversity and inclusion, and navigating generational differences in the workplace. Marci has presented at regional, national, and international conferences, held leadership positions in professional development associations, and served as a mentor and coach to dozens of young professionals. She is also a certified Green Dot interpersonal violence prevention trainer, which aims to eliminate gender-based violence in the world through training bystanders to intervene.

Marci earned a Bachelor of Arts in Early Childhood Education from Wittenberg University, a Master of Arts in College Student Personnel from Bowling Green State University, and a Master of Science degree in Human Resource Development from Xavier University. She enjoys balancing content, humor, and practical take-away tips that can be implemented immediately to help attendees thrive. Clients describe Marci as relatable, upbeat, and authentic. One client stated, “Marci was engaging, knowledgeable, allowed just the right amount of time for activities, and shared personal stories that you can relate to. I hope she returns for future presentations!”
