

The UMBC Teaching English to Speakers of Other Languages Program Presents

EPIK- Teaching English in Korea

A virtual session in celebration of International Education Week

Wednesday
November 20
7:00-8:00 pm
Eastern US Time

Free registration by completing this form

Do you want to teach English in South Korea? Since 1995, EPIK (English Program in Korea) has been the gateway for passionate native English speakers to make a real difference in Korean public schools. UMBC is now partnering with EPIK for teaching opportunities!

EPIK recruiting staff will provide an information session for UMBC students. Join us during International Education Week!

The session will be delivered over Zoom.
Pre-registration is required.

For more information, please join our info session and visit our official website (epik.go.kr).

International Education Week (IEW) is a joint initiative by the U.S. Departments of State and Education celebrated in November each year.