

The UMBC Ronald E. McNair Post Baccalaureate Achievement (McNair Scholars) Program presents
28TH ANNUAL UMBC MCNAIR RESEARCH
PRE-CONFERENCE EVENT

THE 2020
HILL-ROBINSON
MCNAIR
LECTURE

VIRTUAL EVENT

COUNTERSTORIES FOUND AT THE INTERSECTION OF BEING BLACK, FIRST GENERATION,
LOW-INCOME COLLEGE
STUDENTS ATTENDING PWIs

DR. JASMINE LEE

DIRECTOR OF INCLUSIVE EXCELLENCE & INITIATIVES FOR IDENTITY, INCLUSION & BELONGING, UMBC
(MCNAIR ALUMNA FROM EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY)

The Annual Hill-Robinson McNair Lecture is named in honor of:

SEPTEMBER 17TH 2020

streaming live at 5PM EST

To register and for more information about the lecture, visit:

<https://mcnair.umbc.edu/2020HRMLecture>

The event will be streamed live, but registration is requested.

CYNTHIA M.
HILL

Former UMBC Associate
Provost & Founding UMBC
McNair Director

THOMAS
ROBINSON, PH.D.

Assistant Professor of Africana Studies
and McNair Research
Methods Faculty for over 28 years.

EVENT SPONSORED BY

