

Save the date...

AIS 2017

BEYOND TALKING HEADS

The Interdisciplinary Studies Program at UMBC is proud to host the 2017 Association for Interdisciplinary Studies (AIS) international conference.

This edition of the annual conference is themed “Beyond Talking Heads: applied and experiential learning through an interdisciplinary lens.” Within this theme, we will hold workshops, presentations, and performances that explore interdisciplinary approaches to project-based learning on (and off) college campuses.

Deadline for submitting a session proposal to the conference is May 1. INDS is offering a limited number of scholarships for both graduate and undergraduate students to cover the cost of conference registration.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19 –
SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21

For further information, please contact ais-2017@umbc.edu.