

The Modern Languages, Linguistics and Intercultural Communication Department is pleased to present:

Virtual Visit to Macondo

Join us to walk and discover magical realism of Aracataca, birthplace of Nobel Prize-winning Colombian novelist, Gabriel Garcia Marquez.
Darliz Caceres and her tour guides will take us live from Aracataca, Colombia

Tuesday, October 12 @ 4PM

Register here

password: macondovisit

This event is in Spanish and English

Aracataca was the inspiration of the fictional and magical town of Macondo and many of the elements and places in his novels.