

Systemic Approaches to Case
Conceptualization and Clinical Work And

Truly a symbiotic relationship: The Trauma-Informed Mental Health Worker and The Human Trafficking Survivor

Dr. Arrington

3pm:
Friday,
October 1st

[View full
bio here](#)

For decades, in private practice and community health settings, Dr. Arrington has provided supportive services to situationally-challenged, emotionally-hindered, and underserved persons in Maryland. This effort is enhanced by a Masters degree in counseling from Capital Seminary, and a Ph.D. in Marriage and Family Therapy from Amridge University, each with specialized training in the areas of complex trauma recovery, compulsive behavior mitigation, and family relationship enhancement. Dr. Arrington has also supplied executive-level oversight of clinical care at two large residential treatment facilities. Professionally, Dr. Arrington has been a director, a researcher, a clinical practitioner and supervisor, a professor, and a board chair.