

Getting Off to a Great Start After College - Our "High Five" Life Skills Retreat

Offered Especially for The Young Adult Children of BWFA Clients

Benjamin Franklin once said,
"Life's tragedy is that we get old too soon,
...and wise too late."

Baltimore-Washington Financial Advisors will sponsor a workshop to help young adults "get wise" much sooner. The workshop will help sharpen the critical life skills needed in the workplace - skills they haven't gotten from high school and college curriculums.

We recognize that it's an increasingly competitive and complex world, and that young adults are finding it difficult to navigate. We all have a vested interest in helping them get off to a great start. That's why we are excited to announce the BWFA Life Skills Retreat. Attendees will leave with five powerful tools they can start using immediately.

While the usual cost for the workshop is $500 per attendee, BWFA is covering all costs. We invite you to share this opportunity with all the young adults you know.
