

VOLUNTEER SUMMER INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

Internships are located in Washington, D.C.

The Congressional Budget Office (CBO) provides the Congress with the objective, timely, and nonpartisan analyses needed for economic and budgetary decisions. CBO is now accepting applications from graduate students for the 2013 Volunteer (unpaid) Summer Internship Program. Interns contribute to CBO's work in program areas such as budget and tax policy, health care, national defense, the environment, education, retirement and other income assistance, regulation, and public investment.

Summer internships are based on specific projects. The program begins on May 28 and lasts for 10 weeks. There may be some flexibility in start dates.

Ideal candidates are pursuing graduate academic programs in the following fields:

- Economics
- Health policy
- Mathematics
- Public policy/administration
- Finance
- Statistics

Information about the volunteer internship program and the application procedure is available on CBO's Web site, www.cbo.gov/about/our-careers/our-internships.

Students provide general information and submit their cover letter, résumé, contact information for references, unofficial transcripts and list of spring coursework online. Students must submit a complete application by February 28, 2013 at www.cbo.gov/careers to be considered.

Selections are based on academic achievement, the relevance of academic work to CBO's responsibilities, and work experience, and will be completed by early April 2013.
