May 7 • UMBC VSA Culture Show

The students of UMBC Vietnamese Student Association (VSA) have taken it upon themselves to create, direct, and produce a show that ties in aspects of Vietnamese culture with an overarching theme that is very relatable to not only Vietnamese-Americans, but students of within the community. This year's culture show, "Country Boy, City Man" tells the story of staying true to oneself with Huy, a kid raised in the countryside of Vietnam.

Tickets are now available at the CIC in the Commons.
Tickets are free for UMBC students with a red card,
$3 for non-UMBC students in advance, and $5 for non-UMBC students at the door.

6:00 pm - 10:00 pm
University Center: Ballroom
