

24 Hours of Anime: Hour by Hour

Opening slides and introduction start at 7:00pm. After that,

7:00 pm Hanasaku Iroha (1-2)

Ohana Matsumae is an energetic and wild teenager residing in Tokyo with her carefree single mother. Abruptly, her mother decides to run away with her new boyfriend from debt collectors, forcing the young girl to fend for herself—as per her mother's "rely only on yourself" philosophy—in rural Japan, where her cold grandmother runs a small inn. Driven to adapt to the tranquil lifestyle of the countryside, Ohana experiences and deals with the challenges of working as a maid, as well as meeting and making friends with enthralling people at her new school and the inn.

8:00 pm Choose a Genre The “Choose a Genre” block consists of anime hand-picked and curated by the members of the Marathon Committee. First, you choose a genre! This will be determined by a simple majority vote. Then, you will be presented with two anime that fit into that genre, also by voting! Vote wisely, as two genres will remain unwatched by the end of the event.

9:00 pm Viewers’ Choice (Movie Potential) This is the block for you! No really, this block is all about you. During a “Viewer’s Choice” block, we will survey the audience and select five people to propose an anime to watch. Once five titles have been selected, we take a vote and the winner is what we’ll watch for the next hour! There are plenty of Viewer’s Choice blocks throughout the event, so don’t worry if you don’t win. We believe in you!
